BARKSDALE HAMLET'S WIFE ASKS FOR DIVORCE.

Mrs. Daisy Hamlett, wife of Barksdale Hamlett, former Superintendent of Public Instruction of Kentucky, and candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor four years ago, editor of the Adair County News since October, 1917, filed a petition in the office of the clerk of the Adair Circuit Court, praying for a divorce from her husband and $4,000 alimony and the care and custody of three children, Edward C., aged 17 years; Barksdale, Jr., 10, and Margaret 3. Her petition states that her husband is confirmed in the habit of drunkenness, which has increased in the past few months. She states that she owns and has published the Adair County News since October, 1917, and that defendant, Barksdale Hamlett, has charge of it most of the time, and he gets drunk, collects and wastes the proceeds and acts in such a way toward the employees that it is hard to keep them at work and that she will not be able to get out the next issue of the paper.

Many a father has received a black eye from a black sheep son.

TURNED THE LAND OUT

In writing to Arthur Young, the great English farmer, Thomas Jefferson had the following to say concerning farming in Virginia in 1793:

"Good husbandry with us consists in abandoning Indian corn and tobacco, tending small grain, some red clover, following, and endeavoring to have, when the lands are at rest, a spontaneous cover of white clover. I do not present this as a culture judicious in itself; but as good in comparison with what most people there pursue."

Later in the same letter Jefferson emphasizes the very lasting quality of virgin fertility by saying:

"The highlands where I live have been cultivated about sixty years. The culture was Indian corn as long as they would bring enough to pay the labor. Then they were turned out."

The farmer's problem to-day is to reclaim much land which is badly worn.
